

Our passion for life is proportional to the depth of character we possess.

Character is the security we have based on our integrity to our own value system.

Times of crisis do not build character, they simply expose it!

Identifying Our Life's Priorities

List your life's priorities or everything in life that's important to you.
Avoid using single word answers for now (i.e., success, happiness, peace, etc.). Be specific and detailed.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

11. _____

12. _____

Now reduce your priorities into ONE word for each (you may want to combine some of them)
Remember this is your life and your priorities. Their definition need only be relevant to you.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

11. _____

12. _____

Now go back and rank them (on the right) in their order of importance to you based on the following criteria; your definition, values, beliefs, and rules for each of these priorities.